

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

11 JASON DORTON,

No. C 98-2003 MMC

12 Petitioner,

ORDER DENYING WITHOUT PREJUDICE PETITIONER'S MOTION
FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING;
VACATING HEARING

13 v.

14 KATHLEEN DICKINSON, Warden

15 Respondent.

17 Before the Court is petitioner Jason Dorton's Motion for Evidentiary Hearing, filed
18 May 24, 2010. Respondent Kathleen Dickinson has filed opposition; petitioner has not filed
19 a reply. Having read and considered the papers filed in support of and in opposition to the 20 motion, the Court deems the matter suitable for decision on the parties' respective 21 submissions, VACATES the hearing scheduled for July 2, 2010, and rules as follows.

22 On June 11, 1998, petitioner filed his petition for a writ of habeas corpus, which was
23 dismissed by order filed December 28, 1998. On February 1, 2010, however, the Court
24 granted petitioner's unopposed Motion to Reinstate. Thereafter, on February 24, 2010,
25 respondent filed an answer to the petition, as well as a memorandum of points and
26 authorities in support thereof, and, on May 10, 2010, petitioner filed a traverse and a reply
27 memorandum. Petitioner's claims are presently under submission.

1 By the instant motion, petitioner seeks a finding that he is entitled to an evidentiary
2 hearing. Because, as noted, the claims alleged in the petition are under submission, the
3 Court has not yet determined whether petitioner has shown a dispute of material fact exists
4 that may warrant an evidentiary hearing.

5 Accordingly, the instant motion is hereby DENIED without prejudice.

6 Should the Court, upon its review of petitioner's claims and the response thereto,
7 determine that an evidentiary hearing on one or more of petitioner's claims is appropriate,¹
8 the Court will notify the parties and schedule a status conference to address the manner in 9 which such hearing will be conducted.

10 IT IS SO ORDERED.

27 ¹In determining whether an evidentiary hearing is appropriate, the Court will arguments made in the parties' respective filings in connection with the instant motion.
